Supporting Canadian athletes

With the Olympic Games coming to Vancouver in 2010, the expectations for Canada's athletes to perform are greater than ever.

You can support them by helping the CSCC provide them with the best training environment possible.

The Canadian Sport Centre Calgary

The CSCC is home to over 400 of Canada's current and future Olympic and Paralympic athletes.

The funds raised will be used to provide our athletes with world-class coaches, sport psychologists, strength trainers, sport medical experts, nutritionists and sport scientists.
